Short-term aid has been available since June 2020; it was initially extended until 31 December 2020 and is now to be continued in an expanded form in 2021, too. Some €25 billion in grants are currently available for this purpose, and will not have to be repaid.

-Stimulating competitiveness and investment

To boost investment and create additional investment incentives, companies will enjoy improved depreciation options for movable assets such as machinery for the tax years 2020 and 2021. These accelerated depreciation options allow companies to immediately deduct a larger share of investment expenditure from their taxable income.
